I COMMIT TO:

Keep learning about racism, invisible racism and microaggressions, power relations and privilege

Review the recommendations developed within the STAR project and reflect on them with the team.

Evaluate within the team the current engagement in anti-racist action and adjust if the team considers that we can do more.

Introduce anti-racism and good treatment in our daily activities with young people through direct workshops or as a transversal element.

Introduce anti-racist policies in our organisation, company, body;

Offer training opportunities on anti-racism for the team and target groups we work with

Develop anti-racist community actions in our local communities

Make a public statement, so everyone knows that our organization stands against racism
